

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: May 28, 2026

Introduction

This Privacy Policy explains how this Chrome Extension ("the Extension") handles user information and data.

Your privacy is important, and the Extension has been designed to operate with minimal data collection and without transmitting personal information to external servers.

Information Collected

The Extension does not collect, store, sell, share, or transmit any personal information externally.

The only information processed by the Extension is:

- URLs visited within the domain:
- `app.playmfl.com`

This information is used solely for the core functionality of the Extension while operating locally within the user's browser.

No External Data Transmission

The Extension does not:

- Send user data to external servers
- Use third-party analytics services
- Track browsing activity outside of `app.playmfl.com`
- Sell or share user information
- Store personal information remotely

All processing occurs locally within the Chrome browser environment.

Data Storage

Any temporary or locally stored data used by the Extension remains on the user's device and is not accessible by the developer or any third party.

The Extension does not maintain external databases containing user information.

Third-Party Services

The Extension does not integrate with third-party advertising, analytics, or tracking services.

Security

Reasonable measures are taken to ensure the Extension operates securely and minimizes access to unnecessary information.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time to reflect changes to the Extension or legal requirements. Any updates will be reflected by revising the effective date above.

Contact

If you have any questions regarding this Privacy Policy, you may contact the developer through the Chrome Web Store listing or associated support channels.
